torial Aspirations. Messrs. Editors,-I hope the following will not cause me to be classed as an enemy of General Mahone. When I see among his warm friends certain gentlemen known all over the State as men of spotless character I cannot deny that he must have some bigh qualities. But fitness for an office scribe it, and of patients who have taken it, that it which is supposed to represent all the interests of Virginia is not among them. They are sick, too, and getting daily sicker, of politicians. The best record for them will be the one which is clearest on the transportation issue, and freest from any taint of playing into the hands of rings, domestic or foreign,

In a few moor who may be about to make one. There are several questions now before the Legislature in which this matter is involved.

> most startling character were practiced by ored man named Holmes, who was particuall the companies," the writer in the Virginia Patron illustrates his point by the following account of discriminations made against Virginia by the road then under the > administration of General Mahone: "Taking the local and through tariffsheets of the Atlantic, Mississippi and Ohio Railroad Company, in force in 1870, as a specimen, it will be seen that if a car-load of Lynchburg, the Virginia and Tennessee Company charge for hauling that car-load 204 miles under the local tariff is $100.50. If a like car-load passes over the same number (204) miles of the Virginia and Tennessee road, being destined for New York from the following points, the charge by that road under the through tariff is as follows: Knoxville, $59.36; Chattanooga, $54.95; Memphis, $35.64; Marietta, $47 28; Atlanta, $47.88; Selma, $53.85; Nashville, $36.56; Orleans, $37.02. WHAT "PINCH" SAYS .- Mr. Pinchback, when questioned by the Times representative as to whether he had any news from Louisiana, replied: "I have no news, and that is good news. I am never uneasy about Louisiana until I see telegrams beginning to come. Then I know it's getting too warm to be healthy. These Packard fellows think they are very smart," continued the natty quadroon. "They have been going to Hayes with a shrewd story, that I have just taken the trouble to upset. They say that if the President will only give them the moral recognition of the Government they will not need any troops. That's bright, ain't it? Why the Nicholls government would snuff them out in five minutes if the President took the troops off. If he set 'em up again the Nicholls folks would tumble 'em down again, and again, and again-twenty times a week if necessary. Why, the Nicholls people say openly that they would prefer a military Governor to Packard. If the President recognizes Packard he may just propose to either back down from his recognition or to keep about half of the regular army in Louisiana as long as he proposes to make his recognition good; and the other half. I think, would be needed in South Carolina. Why, sir, there are six thousand of the best troops in America in New Orleans to-day ready to do what Nicholls tells them, and they can be brought together by twenty-one taps of the fire-bells quicker than a regiment lying on its arms could get into ranks."- Washington telegram-Philadelphia Times.

It is said that the hand of Colonel Tom Scott will be unmistakably shown in the formation of the new Senate committees.

Mr. Childrey said tobacco could be shipped from New York to Atlanta cheaper than from Richmond to Atlanta. He could buy leaf tobacco in Louisville, Ky., and bring it to Richmond cheaper than from Danville to Richmond. It seemed to him that all the Virginia railroads were operated to the disadvantage of the Virginia trade.

THE PRESIDENT INTERVIEWED .- Senator Edgar Allan returned to this city from Washington yesterday morning. On Wednesday he called upon President Hayes, and offered that functionary some advice about Cabinet appointments, which he declined to take. Mr. Allan represents that the Radicals are in "a great stew," and that while he was at the White House delegations were constantly arriving to enter protests against the Cabinet nominations which the President has since made.

Dove Lodge, No. 51 .- This Masonic odge at their last stated communication decided to move from Washington Hall to St. Alban's, corner of Third and Main streets, and occupy the new lodge-room recently fitted up in that building. This room is said to be one of the most beautiful in this country in point of elegance and taste. Dove Lodge will occupy their new quarters to-night for the first time.

Dr. Gustave Satter and the Lee Monument.

The subjoined correspondence will be read with pleasure by the people of Rich-Henry C. Wyatt, Esq., Business Manager for Dr. Gustave Satter: Dear Sir,-In behalf of a fund and object which we are sure command your sympathy and that of the distinguished artist whom you represent, the undersigned venture to nvoke his invaluable services in the line of pleased to ascertain whether, in aid of the proposed monument to Robert E. Lee, Dr. Gustave Satter will do us and our cause the great favor of conducting and otherwise participating in a vocal and instrumental concert at such early day as he may, with reference to his engagements, indicate.

Very respectfully, &c., [Signed.] A. M. Keiley, John Tyler, J. I. Chamberlayne, William E. Tanner, J. Lawrence Schoolcraft. Richmond, March 7, 1877.

Hon. A. M. Keiley and others, Committee: Gentlemen,-Your letter of the 7th instant, proposing a concert by Dr. Gustave Satter in behalf of the Lee Monument fund. was duly received. I am assured by Dr. Satter it will afford him great pleasure to contribute by any means in his power to so laudable and praiseworthy an object, and I therefore announce for Friday, March 23d, at Assembly Hall, a grand vocal and instrumental concert, in which he will be Mr. Meredith moved to amend so as to reassisted by the best musical talent of the Very respectfully, HENRY C. WYATT,

Business Manager for Dr. Gustave Satter. Richmond, March 8, 1877.

The Mozart Association. Messrs. Editors of the Dispatch: I observe in your notice this morning of the Mozart programme for to-night that an innovation will be made upon the usual order of these entertainments by the introduction of readings. Now, readings are very refining in their tendency, and very pleasing to many when given at a proper time. Yet I but speak, I think, the sentiments of a majority of the members of this Association when I object to this feature, both as inconsistent with the object for which the Mozart was established and as an injustice to the majority. In the first place, the Mozart was understood from its inauguration to be an association having for its object the cultivation of music in our midst, and those who joined did so with a view either of cultivating that art in themselves or of deriving pleasure from it at the weekly musicales.

This being the case, I would ask, Has readings aught to do with the cultivation of music? or is it just to inflict with a bore the many who go to Association Hall to enjoy music simply for the pleasure of a few? It might do as a dernier resort in an association where material for making an attractive musical programme was wanting, and its members showed a lack of interest in it as essentially musical, to introduce a say make a mosaic of it at once. Has the interest of our people in the Mozart flagged any of late? I think not. Indeed, it has rather increased with each entertainment, as too well attest. Then, why seek for a variety that is neither needed nor wanted? I trust the Mozart will ever continue to progress as it has, and that no such innova-ions will be allowed to interrupt the workings of this admirable organization. It will be understood, I trust, that in the above I speak of the principle as affecting the interest of the Mozart, and wish to make no reflection upon any one. A MEMBER.

DR. SCHENCK'S STANDARD REMEDIES .- The standard remedies for all diseases of the lungs are SCHENCK'S PULMONIO SYRUP, SCHENCK'S SEA-WEED TONIC, and SCHENCE'S MANDRAKE PILLS, and if taken before the lungs are destroyed a speedy cure is effected. To these three medicines Dr. J. H. SCHENCK, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary diseases. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs; nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a
